The Newsletter and website keep our members up-to-date on chapter events, state issues, the industry, and our colleagues across Virginia. Our website is also viewed by many prospective members of our chapter, as well as members of other chapters.

Our members include State and Regional Food Directors and those who handle purchasing at the jails. Readers will include our full member roster of about 70 members, representing more than 40 prisons, jails, agencies, companies and other supporters. Newsletters will also be posted to our website and remain available to our visitors.

If you're ready to connect with VA's correctional food service pros, there's no better place than our website and newsletter. At the same time, you'll help us build excellence. Revenues fund quality professional development scholarships for our members.
